

REMEMBRANCE & WAKES CATERING

At Season Catering we understand the significance of choosing the right funeral wake caterer to help commemorate your loved ones. We offer value for money menus that can be bespoke for most occasions and we welcome special requests.

We assist in making sure your family, friends and colleagues can gather and share their condolences during the funeral wake with warm service and great food.

Food we serve is freshly made by our chefs, who work with local businesses to deliver outstanding quality using local ingredients. We have three affordable remembrance packages, and we can work with you if you require a more tailored approach.
